

The Triad Youth Jazz and Blues Society

Win-Win Resolutions is excited to announce that entertainment for the 10th Annual Young Peacemaker Awards Banquet will be provided by The Triad Youth Jazz and Blues Society, a fellow non-profit organization. Their program, consisting of youth between the ages of 8 to 18, is designed to preserve the history of jazz music in our community.

The five members participating in this event are: Autumn Rainey (vocalist), Tyler Montgomery (bass, piano and guitar), Cody Byrd (trombone), Elias Rainey (piano, trumpet) and Josiah Clapp (guitar)

Autumn Rainey, a junior at The Weaver Academy of Performing Arts has been with the TYJS since 2007. Autumn is an aspiring actress, flutist and from time to time designs her own clothing.

Tyler Montgomery, a freshman at the Weaver Academy of Performing Arts where he is involved in the strings program. As an original member of the TYJS, Tyler has played both jazz piano and acoustic bass. Tyler's outside interests include video game design and computers.

Cody Byrd, a junior in the International Baccalaureate Program at Grimsley High School he is also a member of the marching & jazz bands at his school and has been affiliated with TYJS since 2009. Cody is also interested in video game design.

Elias Rainey, a sophomore at Ragsdale High School has been with TYJS since 2006, is a member of All-County Band and enjoys playing lacrosse.

Josiah Clapp, a graduate from Southeast High School and currently attends GTCC as a student in the music management program.

